BOOZE IT & LOSE IT CAMPAIGN A SUCCESS

GREENSBORO, NC (May 3, 2004) – On Friday, April 30, from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m., Guilford County law enforcement officers conducted a Booze It and Lose It campaign in the area of E. Lee Street and Murrow Boulevard. More than 215 individuals were charged with offenses ranging from seat belt infractions to narcotics violations. A total of 13 people were charged with driving while impaired (DWI). Officers from the Greensboro Police Department, Guilford County Sheriff's Department, High Point Police Department, N.C. Highway Patrol, N.C. A&T State University Campus Police, and the UNCG Campus Police said the campaign was a success and their goal to make the road safer for motorists was accomplished. Volunteers from Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) and Persons United for Safer Highways (PUSH) were also present to facilitate the campaign.

Campaign results are as follows:
